

Physical Education and Health Sequences

All semesters are 18 weeks in length. Over the course of each school year the student can be enrolled in one semester of a physical/health education class. This 18-week semester is broken up into 9 weeks of physical education and 9 weeks of health education.

